Professor Stanislaw Mazur
Rector
Cracow University of Economics

Dear Rector,

On behalf of the Academic community and employees of the Lviv Polytechnic National University I would like to congratulate you and the entire new office of the Cracow University of Economics on the election and the beginning of your fruitful work. I am very pleased to receive from you a letter and the invitation to participate in the Inauguration of the 96-th Academic year. We will be happy to take part in it in any possible form.

Also, I want to assure you that we are ready to actively cooperate with the Cracow University of Economics in the fields of research, education and project activities, exchanges of students and staff, as well as any other form that will contribute to the development of our relations, that have some history and most importantly, a great prospect.

I sincerely wish you and your office, inspiration, success, good health and a great Academic year. The person, responsible for the development of our cooperation and current contacts, from our side, will be Oleksiy Druhov, professor of Administrative management department, deputy head of Tech Startup School of Lviv Polytechnic National University.

Sincerely yours,
Rector of Lviv Polytechnic
National University
