TASHKENT STATE UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS

Dear Bernard ZIEBICKI!

Dear professors and students!

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to you on the 100th anniversary of the establishment of Cracow University of Economics! Celebrating this significant milestone is a moment of pride not only for your academic community but also for all those who value excellence in education and research worldwide.

Over the past century, Cracow University of Economics has earned a distinguished reputation as a leading institution in economics, management, and entrepreneurship, not only in Poland but also globally. Your academic programs, groundbreaking research, and successful international collaborations have elevated the university's standing to remarkable heights. On this auspicious occasion, we honor the generations of dedicated educators, innovative researchers, and passionate students who have contributed to the growth and legacy of your institution. Their commitment and hard work have ensured the continuity of excellence and paved the way for future achievements.

As you embark on the next century of academic endeavors, I wish Cracow University of Economics continued success, new breakthroughs, and boundless inspiration. May your institution remain a beacon of knowledge and innovation for generations to come!

With warm regards,

Respectfully,

Tulkin TESHABAEV
